HERE ARE THE CANDIDATES FOR OFFICE

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OPPOSES UNMERGER

By Nearly 5 to 1 Vote Opposes Court Order Severing Connection of S. P. and U. P. Railroads.

The special meeting of the South San Francisco Chamber of Commerce held at the city hall Friday evening of last week saw a large gathering of citizens of the town. The subject for discussion was the recent order of the supreme court unmerging the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific railroads. The meeting resulted in the passing of a resolution expressing the opinion of the local Chamber that the best interests of this region is served by the present status of the two railroads.

Those gathered at the meeting heard both sides of the controversy ably set forth. The speakers included ex-Governor James Gillett, who opposed the court order, representatives of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce and the California Development Board, who took the same stand, P. R. Thompson, Judge E. E. Cunningham and Angelo Scampini, the last three speaking for the enforcement of the dismemberment order.

Dr. F. S. Dolley, president of the Chamber, presided at the meeting. After briefly outlining the subject that was up for discussion, Dr. Dolley called upon Mr. Gillett. Mr. Gillett's address was a clear, logical setting forth of the present status of the two railroads and the possibly disastrous effects of their connection being severed.

Gillett was followed by P. R. Thompson, chairman of the traffic committee of the Peninsula Bureau of Chambers of Commerce, who called upon the local Chamber, of which he is a member, to endorse the resolution recently passed by the Peninsula Bureau upholding the court order for the unmerging of the railroads. He was followed by San Franciscans speakers and by Mr. Scampini and Judge Cunningham.

Following the discussion the resolution was introduced favoring the present status of the two railroads. J. G. Walker immediately introduced a counter resolution opposing the court order. This resolution, introduced as an amendment to the other, was ruled out of order by the chairman, who held it not an amendment but a contrary motion. The original motion was then put and passed by a vote of 34 to 7, thus expressing the concensus of those present against the dismemberment order of the court.

EASTERN INDUSTRY LOOK OVER LOCAL FIELD

Parties from New York representing an eastern industry, accompanied by Messrs. Martin and Thayer, inspected industrial locations in South San Francisco last Friday.

It was learned that their visit will be followed by engineers within the next two weeks, who will make a technical study of all requirements. It was authoritatively stated by one of the visitors that if these requirements are met they will build at once and be in operation before the first of January. Their employment at the start will be twenty-five men.

Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Rodondi returned Monday from a ten-day stay at the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. Magiaghi near St. Helena. During his vacation Mr. Rodondi saw many desirable ranches and listed several for sale.

TRUSTEES CONSIDER ELECTROLIER PROTESTS

Cypress Avenue to Be Dropped From Dist., but Grand Avenue Retained.

The city trustees met in adjourned session Tuesday evening of this week, the object of the meeting being the consideration of the protests that have been lodged against the boundaries as fixed for the electrolier lighting system district. These protests were against the including of Cypress avenue and Grand avenue between Walnut and Spruce in the assessment district. It was decided to revise the preliminary proceedings so as to drop Cypress avenue from the district, but all of Grand avenue as far west as Spruce will, in all probability, be retained.

The inadequacy of the present sewer system in the west end of town was brought up by B. J. Rodondi. This is a matter that has been under consideration by the city officials for some time. As result of the discussion Tuesday evening, Mr. Rodondi was informed that some time in the near future a bond issue would be called for to provide funds for the work of constructing sewers in the west end.

Jules Rey, former lessee of the Sixteen-Mile House near Millbrae, appeared before Justice of the Peace W. J. Smith in South San Francisco Monday for preliminary examination on a charge of grand larceny, growing out of his having removed fixtures and furniture from the property when he vacated in accordance with a court order secured by the owner, Mrs. A. Baradat. Abatement proceedings under the terms of the Volstead act are now pending in the United States district court in San Francisco against the Sixteen-Mile House on account of Rey having sold liquor there.

It developed at the hearing that there is a dispute over the ownership of the fixtures and furniture, and at the request of District Attorney Franklin Swart the hearing was continued until this dispute is adjusted. Rey was represented by Attorney R. B. McMillan of San Francisco.

SUPERVISORS CONSIDER HOSP. SEWER PLANS

Will Open Bids for Sewer System at Meeting of August 21st; Board Disposes of Routine Work.

Plans and specifications for a sewer disposal system for the county hospital being built at Beresford were adopted by the county supervisors at their meeting Monday, and Mrs. Elizabeth Nash, clerk of the board, was instructed to advertise for bids for the work, these bids to be opened at the meeting of the board to be held August 21st.

The plans were submitted by Architect W. H. Toepeke, and include septic tanks. A detailed explanation of the plan was given by C. S. Gillespie, consulting engineer with Architect Toepeke. Its advantages were explained fully, and the board voted unanimously to give its approval. Architect Toepeke was requested to obtain the necessary permit for installation from the State Board of Health.

The board took up again the application of Mrs. J. King for a permit to establish a sanitarium at Menlo Heights, which was previously referred to Supervisor MacBain, and by unanimous vote decided to deny the application.

County Surveyor George A. Kneese presented specifications for the repairing of the main county road between Halfmoon Bay and Tunitas creek, for which purpose funds were recently ordered transferred from the general fund to the fourth district road fund. The specifications were adopted, and the clerk was instructed to advertise for bids for work, the same to be opened on August 14th.

At the request of Mrs. J. King, the board instructed the clerk to address a letter to J. Swanson, owner of a piece of property near Atherton, requesting him to remove a fence which crosses a road which leads to Mrs. King's property.

A complaint was received from Messrs. Breuner & Erb, San Francisco attorneys, on behalf of their clients, Miss Katherine Breuner and Miss Caroline Breuner, reciting that Japanese were dumping sewage and rubbish in a small creek along the leased property. Dr. F. Holmes Smith, health officer, addressed the board on the subject, and the entire matter was placed in Smith's hands, with instructions to abate the nuisance.

CAR AND TRUCK COME TOGETHER AT CORNER

A street car and a milk delivery truck staged a bout at the corner of San Bruno and Grand avenues Tuesday afternoon. From all reports the street car, in spite of its greater weight and superior hitting powers, was worsted in the encounter, receiving a solar plexus punch that nearly put it out of commission. The truck stood its punishment well and went on its way following the accident.

The argument between the two vehicles was over the right of way at the corner, and is still unsettled.

JOHNSON GIVES K. O. IN SECOND, NOT TENTH, ROUND

Recently it was reported that Floyd Johnson delivered a knockout in New York City to an opponent named Caggiano, champion of Italy. It was stated that the local fistic artist laid Caggiano out in the tenth round, but it has since developed that the K. O. was handed out in the second round instead, the trick being turned by Johnson with a neatness, celerity and dispatch that surprised even his most ardent admirers.

WATER CO. TO MAKE LARGE EXTENSIONS

WORK STARTS ON LARGE NEW RESERVOIR; PLAN MANY BIG IMPROVEMENTS; CITY TO HAVE SPLENDID SYSTEM SOON.

Contracts have been let by the South San Francisco Water Company for the construction of a large reservoir on the hilltop in the northwest part of town directly east of Chestnut avenue, and work has already started on the ground. Plans are now being considered for a high-pressure reservoir to be constructed later on the high hill a short distance east of the new reservoir.

An 18-inch cast iron main for delivery purposes only between the pumping plant and the new reservoir will also be at once installed. New mains will be constructed connecting the entire system.

The new reservoir has an elevation ten feet higher than the old reservoir, which is located on the hill adjoining the Federal wireless station.

It is expected that the new reservoir will be ready for use early in December this year.

Expert engineers have also been engaged to modernize all features connected with the water works system, so as to produce the highest possible efficiency in the entire plant. These engineers are now in the field, and have already suggested a number of changes of moment in the delivery system so as to meet all future requirements as well as to take ample care of present needs.

As soon as their work is completed, South San Francisco will enjoy the most up-to-date independent water supply in the state.

LAST OF ABORIGINES ILL AT MILLBRAE HOME

The following story concerning the last survivor of an Indian tribe which once inhabited this region appeared recently in the San Francisco Chronicle. The survivor in question, Marie Bernal Buffet, lives at Millbrae. Here is the story:

"The last of San Francisco's Indians, racked with pain in the little bed to which she has been confined for a year, is nearing the happy hunting grounds of her fathers. When she enters the portals the final living reminder of the race which played so important a part in the growth of the West can be recalled only from the glowing pages of history of San Francisco and its environs.

"Marie Bernal Buffet, now in her sixty-fifth year, is the survivor of her tribe, the name of which she herself does not know. But she does know that her grandfather, Pedro Acanta, was a confidante of Father Junipero Serra, and that he was largely instrumental in the construction of the first Mission Dolores.

"Interwoven with the history of progress of which Marie has been an integral part is the story of her romance, a romance that endured for more than two-score years.

"For the past year Antoine has been unable to work, because of the necessity for his constant attendance at his wife's bedside. And, he says, this situation may make impossible Marie's last request—that she be allowed to die in the little home she has loved through the years. For Antoine must pay a $500 mortgage next October, and the money has been used for medicines and life-giving foods since Marie became ill."

AUTO ACCIDENT VICTIM BROUGHT FROM SALADA

The injured man stated that the front wheel of his car broke in making a turn and the machine upset down an embankment. He was able to go to his home after spending the night at the hospital.

CITY TRUSTEES MEET.

Besides the regular routine of business, little of interest was transacted by the board of trustees at the regular bimonthly meeting Wednesday evening.

Of most importance was a communication by City Attorney Mason making two noteworthy recommendations after a thorough investigation into the financial status of San Bruno. First, he advised the board to refrain for the time being from undertaking any further improvements necessitating the levying of special assessments beyond those now under way, lest the city's credit be impaired. Then the attorney suggested that in the matter of the delinquent tax problem, relief be sought under the municipal improvement act by proceeding against those property owners who failed to pay their special water purchase assessments. The board will follow the attorney's suggestions.

A communication from a local citizen, pointing out that the city is being charged $4.50 a square for its legal advertising, as against $2 a square other cities of the county are paying, was referred to the commissioner of finance.

A building permit to erect the necessary stalls at Tanforan was granted, likewise a permit for Al Berg to remodel his house on San Mateo avenue.

The Municipal Improvement Company was urged to get the street work in San Bruno Park under way without further unnecessary delay, the contract having been awarded it months ago.

MORE GOOD THINGS

Give the children a treat by making them some good home-made candy.

The following will be easy to make and pleasant to eat:

Pacific Sea Foam. — Take three cupfuls of light brown sugar, one cupful of water, one-fourth teaspoonful of cream of tartar. Cook to the soft ball stage and pour over the well-beaten white of an egg, beat until cool, adding three-fourths of a cupful of walnuts and one-half teaspoonful of vanilla. Drop by teaspoonfuls on a buttered sheet or pour into a well buttered pan.

Chinatown Almond Squares. — Boil together two cupfuls of sugar and one cupful of water eight minutes, then add one-half teaspoonful of vinegar and boil until the syrup is brittle when dropped in cold water. Brown one-half pound of almonds slightly in a buttered pan; now pour over the almonds the hot syrup, which has been flavored with one-half teaspoonful or less of almond extract. Press the candy well down evenly in the pan, using the cut side of half a lemon. Cut before it hardens.

Baked Corn With Clams. — Mix one can of minced clams, one cupful of canned corn, one cupful of milk, and one egg, with one teaspoonful of salt, a speck of onion, salt, pepper and paprika. Place in a baking dish and dot with two tablespoonsfuls of butter. Bake one-half hour. Fresh corn may be used.

Potato and Herring Pie. — Peel six potatoes, slice very thin, season with white pepper and mix with one cupful of chopped celery and one-fourth of a scraped onion. Put into a baking dish, in which two tablespoonsfuls of butter have been melted and toss the vegetables in the butter until well covered with it. Chop two salted herrings which have been soaked in cold water for an hour or two, mix with the vegetables and pour over the whole one cupful of milk or water. Cover with baking powder biscuit crust and bake three-quarters of an hour in a moderate oven. Brush over the crust with melted butter before it is quite baked.

THE STATE AND THE POWER ACT

The Enterprise is frequently asked where it stands on the water and power act amendment that will come before the voters at the next general election. Briefly this paper is against it, as it is against most idealistic, socialistic dreams. From time to time between now and election this newspaper will have something to say about the proposed water and power act. As a starter it will merely quote an editorial from the Industrial News Bureau, which sets forth the basic fallacy of the proposed measure. Here it is:

"It is enough to make a cat laugh to read the arguments that are advanced in California by the advocates of the proposed water and power act, which would launch the commonwealth on a state-owned power development scheme to the extent of $500,000,000 as a starter."

"The ability of the state to borrow money at 1½ or 2 per cent less interest than any private company is cited as the most important reason why the state should go into the power business, on the theory that this saving would enable it to make lower rates to consumers."

"Unless the state management of power projects were much more efficient than state or government management of any other undertaking, the possible 2 per cent interest saving would be more than swallowed up by overhead charges accumulated at various places in the management."

"Aside from all this, however, the argument is weak and hypocritical and morally unsound unless the advocates of the measure come out flatfootedly and say that, for the same reason advanced in support of the water and power act, the state could secure capital more cheaply for operating our banks, our insurance companies, our wholesale houses, our transportation companies, our grocery stores, our newspapers and our farms."

"If it is of such great advantage for the state to save 2 per cent in one line of industry, it is obviously of still greater advantage for the state to enter other lines of industry which affect even more intimately the daily life of its people than does the power business."

"Why not have the state invest $500,000,000 in the production of farm products and food stuff, which would be furnished to the people on the same reduced cost that is claimed for the development of state power?"

"Whose business is to be left free, whose is to be taken over by the state?"

"Are the advocates of the state water and power act honest enough to come out and openly advocate state socialism? That is what their measure proposes for the 'other fellow's' business."

"Already we see in Russia the failure of government monopoly of business."

"To revive its industrial life, Russia is again inviting foreign capital to come there and develop property."

"Instead of profiting by Russia's experience, socialists in California would launch the state on a program of state ownership, which Russia after disastrous experiment is already turning away from."

HOW MANY PEOPLE KNOW THE ANSWER?

"Why are public utilities with all their investment and their properties continually needing money?" inquired the newly enfranchised woman who is studying public questions.

"Search me," replied the husband, as he turned to the second sports page of the morning paper.

But the voting woman wanted the answer. She asked the meter reader, and the meter reader knew the answer. He has stock in the company he works for.

"It's this way," said the employee. "Your grocer probably has stock that is worth $4000. He sells that stock over five or six times a year. In other words, with an investment of $4000 he does a business of $25,000. He makes his profit on the amount of his business. The utility company has several million dollars invested—mostly borrowed money. It takes five years on an average for the utility to do as much business as its investment amounts to—but its profits are on its business just like your grocer's. Besides the utilities have to grow. There is more demand every year for their services, but it costs them millions to get ready to do business in thousands. And they pay interest on all the money they use."

"But lots of people say the rates are too high."

"Rates are made under the supervision of the state or city," said the meter reader. "They are fixed to yield enough to keep the property going and pay a fair return on the value of the property, after the expenses are paid. The character of the business makes this necessary, in that the utility has to grow with the community, and as most American communities are growing, the American public not only wants, but demands the service which all utilities supply. To furnish this service the utilities necessarily have constantly to invest new money to provide for the necessary additional plant with which to render the service. This new money cannot be obtained unless the utilities are earning a fair return."

For a profitable vacation at low cost, spend it in your garden.

Poem by Uncle John

ATTENTION TO DETAIL

When a feller pays attention to the commonest of things, there's a powerful sight of comfort in the happiness it brings. If we overlook the details in the rush of gettin' there, we may face the grim necessity of bringin' up the rear.

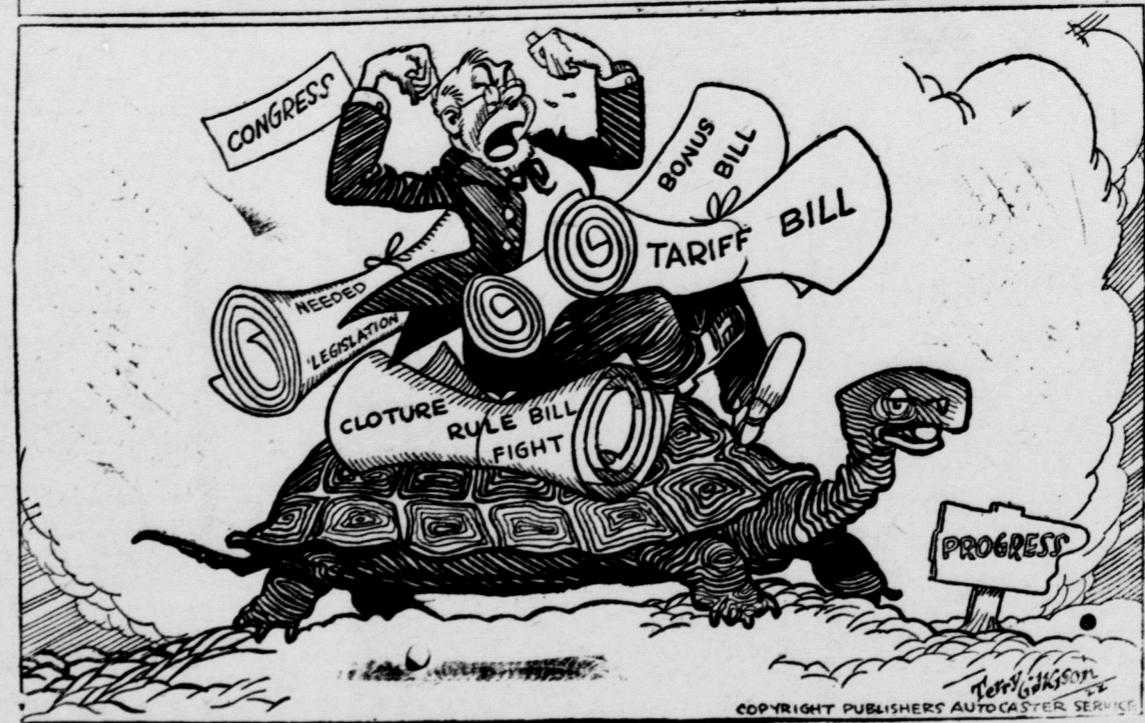

In the thousan' little ventures that a feller undertakes, it may be plantin' flowers, or it may be killin' snakes. Our hand may grasp the saber, or the handle of the plow—but we don't accomplish anything, without a knowin' how!

The man that borrys money at a triflin' rate per cent, may dissipate his wages till he don't know how they went. . . . But the keefil money lender, as he figgers the amount, might illuminate the spender, on the little things that count.

I reckon there is women that's disposed to keepin' house. . . . They'd entertain the elephant an' squall about the mouse! They fight the little red ant, while they love a dog, by jings, but that's the way with women—they aspire to greater things!

From Uncle John.

It is gratifying to a motorist to know that his car has power and plenty of it.

And that is one of the most notable features of the performance of the Oldsmobile Four—its proven power.

But it is a good car to own for many other reasons—its beauty of line and smart appearance; its speed, when needed; its known economy and its absolute reliability.

You can tell by the way a lot of folks act that they think the biblical injunction, "Be ye also perfect," was meant for somebody else.

Every married man longs some day to be allowed to eat the things he wishes without being told what he ought to eat.

A lot of advice is being spilled about boys and girls who "go astray" that would better be used on their parents who go the same way.
